The Coretta Scott King Award is an annual award presented by the Ethnic & Multicultural Information Exchange Round Table, part of the American Library Association (ALA). Named for Coretta Scott King, wife of Martin Luther King Jr., this award recognizes outstanding African American authors and illustrators. The book must be about the African American experience, and be written for a youth audience (high school or below).

The John Steptoe New Talent award is established to affirm new talent and to offer visibility to excellence in writing and/or illustration which otherwise might be unacknowledged within a given year within the structure of the two awards given annually by the Coretta Scott King Task Force. The criteria for eligibility will be the same as those for the writing and illustration awards, with the exception that the winning(s) published works cannot exceed three in number.

The Coretta Scott King Award is an annual award presented by the Ethnic & Multicultural Information Exchange Round Table, part of the American Library Association (ALA). Named for Coretta Scott King, wife of Martin Luther King Jr., this award recognizes outstanding African American authors and illustrators. The book must be about the African American experience, and be written for a youth audience (high school or below).

The John Steptoe New Talent award is established to affirm new talent and to offer visibility to excellence in writing and/or illustration which otherwise might be unacknowledged within a given year within the structure of the two awards given annually by the Coretta Scott King Task Force. The criteria for eligibility will be the same as those for the writing and illustration awards, with the exception that the winning(s) published works cannot exceed three in number.

The Coretta Scott King Award is an annual award presented by the Ethnic & Multicultural Information Exchange Round Table, part of the American Library Association (ALA). Named for Coretta Scott King, wife of Martin Luther King Jr., this award recognizes outstanding African American authors and illustrators. The book must be about the African American experience, and be written for a youth audience (high school or below).

The John Steptoe New Talent award is established to affirm new talent and to offer visibility to excellence in writing and/or illustration which otherwise might be unacknowledged within a given year within the structure of the two awards given annually by the Coretta Scott King Task Force. The criteria for eligibility will be the same as those for the writing and illustration awards, with the exception that the winning(s) published works cannot exceed three in number.

The Coretta Scott King Award is an annual award presented by the Ethnic & Multicultural Information Exchange Round Table, part of the American Library Association (ALA). Named for Coretta Scott King, wife of Martin Luther King Jr., this award recognizes outstanding African American authors and illustrators. The book must be about the African American experience, and be written for a youth audience (high school or below).

The John Steptoe New Talent award is established to affirm new talent and to offer visibility to excellence in writing and/or illustration which otherwise might be unacknowledged within a given year within the structure of the two awards given annually by the Coretta Scott King Task Force. The criteria for eligibility will be the same as those for the writing and illustration awards, with the exception that the winning(s) published works cannot exceed three in number.